

Flexifinger QD Industries Inc.
LIMITED WARRANTY POLICY
Flexifinger® Quicker Picker Rock Picker

The warranty obligations of Flexifinger QD Industries Inc. (herein "Flexifinger") for the Flexifinger® Quicker Picker (herein the "Product") are limited to the terms set forth below:

Definitions:

"Non-commercial Use" means the usage of the Product for sixty (60) days or less in any single calendar year. "Commercial Use" means the usage of the Product for sixty-one (61) days or more in any single calendar year. "Military Use" means the usage of the Product by any jurisdictional military force and/or any of its components.

Term

Flexifinger provides a warranty to the original purchaser (herein the "Owner") of the Product against manufacturer's defects in materials and workmanship for the following industries (herein the "Limited Warranty"):

1. For Non-commercial Use: a period of one (1) year of from the date of purchase.
2. For Commercial Use: a period of sixty (60) days from date of purchase.
3. For Military Use: a period of sixty (60) days from date of purchase if the Product is used solely for the purpose of picking rocks. In the event the Product is utilized for any use other than picking rocks this Limited Warranty shall become null and void.

Coverage details

Flexifinger's Limited Warranty only covers defects in materials and/or workmanship. This Limited Warranty also covers defects of the following original dynamic components: motors and bearings. Flexifinger will either repair or replace the unit at its sole option and discretion.

Exclusions

Items not covered in this Limited Warranty include but are not limited to: cosmetic damage; normal wear and tear; misuse; acts of war; explosions; fire and damages from shipping; acts of God; or any sort of customer misuse, improper installation, customer modifications or improper adjustments. This Product's Limited Warranty does not cover sprockets, hydraulic hoses, fittings or seals. The occurrence of any of the following will automatically void the warranty:

1. Product misuse, which includes picking up material that is burning or hot, or picking up material that could explode or cause excessive heat;
2. Negligent operation or repair;
3. Corrosion or use in corrosive environments;
4. Inadequate or improper maintenance;
5. Damage sustained during shipping;
6. Collisions or other incidental contacts causing damage to the product;
7. Any modification to the original design (modifications may make the product unsafe to use or may cause excessive and/or abnormal wear);
8. Not operating the product according to the Manufacturer's instructions and/or failure to read the Instruction & Warranty Manual provided by the Manufacturer.

Requesting Warranty Repair and/or Replacement

In order to pursue any remedy under this limited warranty, the Owner must possess an original, dated receipt as proof of purchase from an authorized Flexifinger reseller. A request for warranty in writing accompanied by the original dated receipt must be sent to Flexifinger. An e-mail accompanied with an electronic scan or picture of the original receipt may be accepted at the discretion of Flexifinger. To request for warranty, contact:

Flexifinger QD Industries Inc.

Once Flexifinger receives your written request and proof of purchase, an authorized service representative will contact the Owner to determine whether the claim is covered by warranty. Prior to providing any warranty repair or replacement, Flexifinger may require the Owner to send the entire product or the defective part to Flexifinger's facility in Canada or the United States. If Flexifinger requires return of the entire product or defective part from the Owner, the Owner shall properly pack the Product and arrange for shipment at the expense of the Owner. Freight charges to Flexifinger are not covered by this warranty. Provided the Product is returned to Flexifinger at the Owner's expense and at Flexifinger's discretion, the warranty repairs will be completed at no charge for parts or labour during the warranty period.

Repair and/or Replacement Parts and/or Units

After Flexifinger determines warranty repair or replacement is required, Flexifinger will provide the Owner with the appropriate part(s) to complete the repairs or a replacement unit at the expense of Flexifinger. Replacement parts and units may be new or recertified at Flexifinger's option and sole discretion.

Replacement parts and/or Products for non-commercial usage are warranted for the remaining portion of the original warranty, or ninety (90) days from the warranty service, whichever is more. Replacement parts and/or units for commercial usage are warranted for the remaining portion of the original warranty or thirty (30) days from the warranty service, whichever is more.

Limitations

There are no express warranties other than those listed or described above. Any implied warranties, including any implied warranty of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose, shall be limited in duration to the period of time set forth above. Flexifinger's total liability for any and all losses and damages resulting from any cause whatsoever shall in no event exceed the purchase price of the product.

Flexifinger shall not be responsible for loss of use, commercial loss, lost revenue or lost profits, or other incidental or consequential damages. Some jurisdictions do not allow limitations on how long and implied warranty lasts or the exclusion of incidental or consequential damages, so the above limitations or exclusions may not apply to you. This Limited Warranty gives the Owner specific legal rights, who may also have other rights which vary from jurisdiction to jurisdiction. This Limited Warranty is subject to change without notice.
