

HOW TO: Use the Dealer Network Website

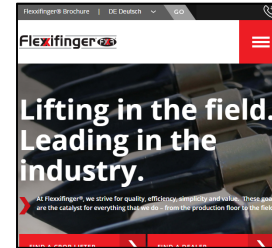

Flexifinger® has a special Dealer Network website that is available to only to our dealers. It contains company and product information, sales tools, support documents, and downloads.

1. Go to www.flexifinger.com on your computer or mobile device.

The resolution of the screen that you're using will change the general look of the website.

3. Enter your username and password and click LOGIN.

When you sign up to become a dealer, Flexifinger's Sales & Support team will assign your organization with a username and a password which you'll use to access the site. If you forgot your login information, if you need more than one login for your organization, store or department, or if you need to change your login for any reason, please call +1-306-642-4555.

4. You are now logged into the Dealer Network website.

You are able to access Dealer Network only pages, but our regular public webpages remain available for you to browse as well. When visiting a Dealer Network only page, the logo in the upper left-hand corner changes. To navigate through the private Dealer Network pages, click on Dealers Home in the top red menu bar. If you're on a computer or tablet, you can also use the side menu bar.
